CLU Designation Reinstatement Policy

For lapsed designation holders applying for reinstatement, continuing education must be completed during the period of a lapsed designation and proof of completed CE must be provided before reinstatement will occur.

If a lapsed designation holder applies for re-instatement after having left The Institute, the following applies:

For all who apply for reinstatement and who have been absent for three years or less:

- Proof of the required continuing education credits taken during that period must be submitted with the application for reinstatement.
- Those applying for reinstatement will be required to pay the appropriate administration fees.

For all who apply for reinstatement and who have been absent for more than three years:

- Proof of the required continuing education for the three years prior to the application for reinstatement must be submitted.
- Those applying for reinstatement will be required to challenge the Advanced Estate Planning course exam including appropriate exam and administration fees.

Annual maintenance of the CLU designation includes:

- an annual fee of $550 plus applicable taxes
- adherence to The Institute Code of Professional Conduct & Disciplinary Procedures, and
- a minimum of 30 continuing education (CE) credits each calendar year, two credits of which must be from a recognized Ethics program. A minimum of 15 CE credits must be accredited by The Institute; a maximum of 15 CE credits can be approved by The Institute. Any deficiency in one year must be made up by the end of the next calendar year, in addition to the full year’s necessary requirement of CE credits. For more information, please visit www.iafe.ca/faq/.

Reinstatement Application

All questions contained in this form must be answered in order for the CLU designation to be reinstated for the current year. Failure to properly complete this document, including the submission of payment for the required fees, will result in an incomplete submission and may delay reinstatement.

The term for the CLU marks and the usage rights are granted for a one-year basis and expires by the end of the day December 31 of each calendar cycle. A CLU designation holder who fails to meet all continuing obligation requirements risks having their designation revoked due to non-compliance.
